

Jurgen Fred Koschetzki
1061 W Saugerties Woodstock Rd
Saugerties NY 12477
Tel 845 246 0282
Email: jwlus@msn.com
Web Site: <http://www.ceramicartists.com>

Erin Tapley
Search Chair
Western Carolina University
Highway 107
Cullowhee, NC 28723

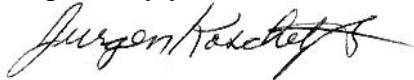

Dear Ceramics Search Committee,
This letter is in response to the vacancy posting Asst/Assoc Professor - Ceramics (0642).

I am a professional artist, ceramics educator and highlight the following qualifications:

- an extensive show record focused on 35 years of sales venues,
- educator and studio manager of the ceramic arts program at Columbia Greene Community College over the past 24 years with ceramics expertise covering most studio practices including kiln building and clay glaze calculations technology,
- comprehensive hands on studio experience enabling teaching at the Foundation and Graduate level,
- years of immersion in the arts has fashioned an awareness of professional practices and contemporary trends and granted an ability to effectively teach courses in art history,
- a multi medium artist with the ability to teach a range of courses including jewelry craft,
- a mature cultivation of interpersonal relationships has enabled effective working skills with a varied student body, faculty and the community at large.

If you find my talents can contribute to your program, I would be delighted to join your team.

Respectfully yours,

Jurgen (Fred) Koschetzki

The following Web Link contains: CV, Student Portfolio, Koschetzki Portfolio, Statements and References:

- To Application Home Web Page
http://ceramic-artists.com/00_wcu/home.html